PRESS ADVISORY:
OFFICE OF CONGRESSIONAL ETHICS RELEASES SECOND QUARTER REPORT

The Office of Congressional Ethics, established by the House of Representatives, is an independent, non-partisan entity charged with receiving and reviewing allegations of misconduct concerning House Members and staff and, when appropriate, referring matters to the Committee on Ethics.

Consistent with the desire of the House for more transparency in these matters, the OCE released today a report of its activities for the second quarter of 2014. This report also includes a statistical summary of OCE activities since it began conducting reviews and an accompanying graphic. The report is posted on the OCE's website <http://oce.house.gov>.
